CLASSIFICATION. SEC. 25X1 REPORT NO TOPIC. SCHOOL Airfield EVALUATION. DATE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED ENCLOSURES (No. a Type). REMARKS. 25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the cloud hangars of the School at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 25X1 4. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the cloud hangars of the School at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 3. October 1949 25X1 3. October 1949 25X1 4. October 1949 25X1 5. October 1949 25X1 6. October 1949 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bur Corps previously stationed in School NALDZ is now assumed to be in TAAKUM. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its statached ground unit. This document is hereby regimed to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of contral intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Note Review Eric: 2030 Not	fl
EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 22 November 1949 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type) REMARKS. 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOON-WALDE (16 55/Z 65 airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying.) 25X1 3. October 1949 2. aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. In SCHOON-WALDE in School And School Schoo	7/1/0
EVALUATION DATE OF CONTE DATE
DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 22 November 1949 25X1 ENCLOSURES (No. & NPE) REMARKS. 8 October 1949 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armsment in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the cloued hangars of the SCHORN-HALD2 (N 53/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 8 October 1949 2. Silventy and stated that the field was occupied by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. IN SCHORN ALDS since early september 1949 than were transforred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report c.nfirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bar Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDS is now assumed to be in STAAKUM. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1937 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the Uniced State of the Machivist of the Uniced State o
25X1 DATE PREPARED 22 November 1949 REFERENCES PAGES _!ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
25X1 DATE PREPARED 22 November 1949 25X1 DATE PREPARED 22 November 1949 25X1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-ALDE (N 55/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 8 October 1949 2. aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. In SCHOEN ALDE since early september 1949 than were trensforred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Emr Corpe previously stationed in SCHOENWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stateched ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1973 from the Director of Central Inteligence to the Archives of the United States.
REFERENCES PAGES . ENCLOSURES (No. & NYE) 25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cookpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the 3CHOEN-WALDA (N. 55/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Fe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 2. the field was occupied by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. In SCHOEN ALDE since early september 1949 than were transforred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report c.nfirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Ear Corps previously stationed in SCHOENWALDE is now assumed to be in STAKKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stacked ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Inteligence to the Archwist of the United States.
B October 1949 25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHODN-WALDE (N 53/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 3 October 1949 2. 3 October 1949 2. 3 October 1949 2. 4 the field was cocupied by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. 5 more officers and Eth have arrive in SCHODN-ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Emr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAKKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligance to the Archivast of the United States.
8 October 1949 25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hengars of the 30MbM-MADD (N 55/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 8 October 1949 2.	Peritis transferability
25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEM-ALDA (N 55/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 8 October 1949 2. aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldlers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and Em have arrive in SCHOEM-ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report ounfirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Eur Corps previously stationed in SCHOEM-ALDE is now assumed to be in STAKKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its statehed ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central hieligence to the Archivest of the Landed States.
25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-MALDE (N 5/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 2. the field was occupied by aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and Eth have arrive in SCHOEN/ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOEN/ALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stacked ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivst of the United States.	**************************************
25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-FALDE (N 5/2 56) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 2. the field was occupied by aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and Edw have arrive in SCHOEN/ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOENWALDE is now assumed to be in OTAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Comboer	wy - 2 - 2 - 2 - 1 - 1 - 1
25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-MALDE (N 5/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 25X1 3. October 1949 2. the field was occupied by aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and Eth have arrive in SCHOEN/ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOEN/ALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its stacked ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivst of the United States.
25X1 1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the cloued hangars of the SCHOEN-WALDJ (N 53/Z 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 3 October 1949 2.	Tarapa de Caraba de C
1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the cloued hangars of the SCHOEN-MALDS (N 53/Z 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 3 October 1949 2.
1. Twenty-five to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-MALDA (N 53/Z 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 8 October 1949 2.
25X1 Twenty-live to thirty single-engine low-wing monoplanes (in-line engine, armament in cockpit firing rearward) were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-WAIDL (N 55/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. Soctober 1949	•
were parked in front of the closed hangars of the SCHOEN-MALDE (N 53/2 66) airfield. A twin-engine Pe-2 landed at the field about noon. There was no other flying. 25X1 8 October 1949 2.
25X1 8 October 1949 2.
2.	25)
2.
the field was occupied by aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and EM have arrived in SCHOLN/ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
aircraft and stated that the field was guarded by soldiers wearing blue or red-bordered, black epaulets. more officers and Eld have arrived in SCHOLN ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
more officers and Ell have arrive in SCHOLN ALDE since early september 1949 than were transferred. The personnel arrived mostly in small groups. 25X1
25X1 Comment: a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	•
a. The report confirms the occupation of the field by a ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOENWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
ground attack regiment. The training regiment of the III Bmr Corps previously stationed in SCHOLNWALDE is now assumed to be in STAAKEN. b. The information again confirms the presence of an army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	*
army unit besides the ground attack regiment and its attached ground unit. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
i
CLASSIFICATION 63 CLASSIFICATI
CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENT OF TO SECURE THE STATE OF THE SECURE THE) 25X1